Submission of Runs and Titles and Volunteer Time

- JR will take the Run Recording Form with them to the event and fill it out with the information from their qualifying runs for the event. The form requires the secretary or judges' signature to verify that the JR handled the dog and that the times/Qs are correct.
- Volunteer time can be submitted on the Run Recording Form or if they did not run a dog at the trial, they may use the Volunteer Submission Form.
- If the JR has handled the dog for all qualifying runs for the dog's title. They will submit the Proof of Title form (they do not have to be submitted at the same time). In addition to the Proof of Title form, they must upload a screen shot or PDF of the dog's record that shows the runs used to award the title are the same runs the JR handler submitted on the Run Recording Form(s).
- All forms will be submitted on the Submit Forms page on the BHA-JR.com Website
 - This can be done online with a scanned/photo of the forms.
 - If you are unable to submit the forms online you may mail them to BHA-JR PO Box 85 Salvisa, KY 40372

Recognition

Earning Stars

- Points are cumulative over the course of the Junior's Barn Hunt career until they age out.
- Once the JR submits enough points to earn the total number required for each star, they will receive their STAR certificate by mail. Please make sure to email if the JR's address has changed since their registration.

Yearly Recognition

- Yearly recognition will be given to the top 10 BHA-JRs by points earned from June 1st- May 31st with awards/certificates given out at the banquet during Barn Hunt Nationals.
 - For recognition in 2023 points will be earned from June 1st, 2022, to May 31st, 2023.
